

2000 SERIES™ FLAME-RESISTANT 2082

The secondary line of palm-coated gloves from HexArmor®, the 2000 Series™ is purpose-built for an impressive range of applications. Each product in this series is constructed of fiber blend and unique palm coatings. Glove structures are durable, flexible, and cut resistant, offering both dexterity and safety. Varying palm dips increase abrasion resistance, extend product life, and provide the highest grip for many specific uses.
